FEES FOR DISTANCE/ONLINE PROGRAMS – GRADUATE PROGRAMS

Most courses offered through distance/online programs are assessed the same tuition as on-campus MU courses. Distance students are assessed the information technology fee and any applicable course fees. Distance students are not assessed campus fees (e.g. recreation facility fees) but may opt to pay fees for access to services.

Graduate students: $352.60 per credit hour unless your school/college charges a higher rate for the online courses they offer. Schools/colleges that charge higher rates are listed below. Graduate students who have been designated as distance students pay in-state tuition or the higher rate charged by the program regardless of where they have residency. Graduate students who have been designated as on-campus students and who do not have Missouri residency will also be assessed the graduate nonresident fee: $612.90 per credit hour (in addition to the in-state tuition or higher rate charged by the program) if they take an online class.
